

Sport Collisions and Momentum

Describe two situations in sport where collisions occur and briefly describe the result of the collision in terms of momentum. The first one has been done for you as an example.

1. Soccer player kicking a penalty shot. The momentum created by the moving kicker combined with the swinging of the kicking leg causes the much lighter ball to move at great speed towards the goal at impact.

2.

3.
